Scottish News in Minnesota

MARCH 2022

EVENTS

March 12 - Saturday / 7:30p.m.

Lunasa

Pantages Theater

710 Hennepin Avenue

Minneapolis, MN 55403

This amazing group returns to Minnesota, once again, for a lively night of music. Lúnasa's complex arrangements and unique sound reshaped the boundaries of traditional Irish music, energizing audiences the world over. Tickets may be purchased through the Hennepin Theater Trust.

March 16 - Wednesday / 7:00 p.m.

Skerryvore

Dakota

1010 Nicollet Mall
Minneapolis, MN

Minnesota last saw Skerryvore in 2017 at the Cedar Cultural Center where everyone was treated to a special night up close, front and center with this energetic band. With a mix of fiddle, accordions, pipes and whistles, alongside guitar and vocals, underpinned by driving bass, drums and keys, Skerryvore represent the best in contemporary Scottish traditional music. Their 6 studio albums demonstrate the wide range of influences the individual musicians bring to the mix – a unique fusion of folk, trad, rock and Americana, with even some jazz in there! Tickets may be purchased through the Dakota.

March 17 - Thursday / 11:30a.m.

Cumar

Landmark Center

75 Fifth Street West

St. Paul, MN

Cumar, a West African-Irish collaboration, will perform at the Irish Music and Dance Association's St. Patrick's Day Celebration of music and dance at the Landmark Center in downtown St. Paul. More details on the event will be found at www.irishmusicanddanceassociation.org soon. The day's celebration runs from 10 - 5, and there will be a small admission price at the door. Music, dance, vendors, food, beverages, presentations - Irish culture, St. Paul style!

March 29 - Tuesday / 11:00a.m.

Willow Brae at Star Studio

Children's Minnesota

2525 Chicago Avenue South

Minneapolis, MN

Willow Brae (Laura MacKenzie/Winds and Andrea Stern/Celtic Harp) perform at the Star Studio of Children's Hospital broadcast for patients and families with "The Dude".

March 31 - Thursday / 6:00p.m.
